

ATOLL collection

Design by Fiorenzo Dorigo

The Atoll collection is a pouf system conceived as a set of independent islands. Its volumes, based on basic geometries, (Triangle, square, pentagon) vary their shape according to the size of the pouf. The finish on their sewings give each piece a unique design.

Atoll is available in four sizes with one, four or five seats with a wide range of fabrics and leather finishings.

Its internal structure of polyurethane foam with a wood base makes the product light and easy to move around.
